Loren LaPorte
JMU Head Softball Coach

Loren LaPorte is in her sixth year with the softball team at James Madison University. She served as an assistant coach for five years and was elevated to head coach in September of 2017.

In her five seasons in Harrisonburg, the Dukes have compiled a record 237-56, including an 88-9 mark in Colonial Athletic Association play. She helped the program pick up its first-ever Top-25 ranking, earn five straight NCAA Tournament appearances and the program's first-ever NCAA Super-Regional appearance in 2016.

Prior to coming to Harrisonburg, LaPorte spent the previous three seasons as an assistant coach at Radford University serving as the recruiting coordinator. During her time at Radford, LaPorte assisted Dean in leading the Highlanders to a 110-59 overall record, a 48-9 Big South Conference record and three consecutive Big South Conference Regular Seasons.

LaPorte, a former Roanoke College standout, joined Radford after spending the 2009 season as an assistant coach at her alma mater. She made a successful transition from player to coach, serving as the Maroons' infield instructor and helping them to a 24-11 overall and 12-6 ODAC (Old Dominion Athletic Conference) record.

Jennifer Herzig
Assistant Softball Coach

Jennifer Herzig is in her sixth season as an assistant coach with JMU Softball. In her five seasons in Harrisonburg, the Dukes have compiled a 237-56 record, including an 88-9 mark in Colonial Athletic Association play. JMU has set new single-season win totals each season, including a 52-8 record in 2016. She helped the program reach the top 10 in both major softball polls and five NCAA Championship berths. The Dukes have won a game in all five NCAA tournament appearances, including taking the Harrisonburg Regional title in 2016 to advance to the program's first NCAA Super Regional.

Herzig comes to JMU after serving the previous seven seasons as the head coach at UNCG, where she won 173 games. During her time there she coached 24 NFCA Scholar-Athletes and 21 Academic All-Southern Conference selections. Prior to taking her position at UNCG, Herzig served as an assistant coach at Charlotte and as a graduate assistant at East Tennessee State. She played at Charlotte from 1997-2011 where she was a four-year letter winner at catcher and first base.

Libby Morris
Assistant Softball Coach

Libby Morris is in her first season with the softball team at James Madison. Morris came to JMU after being an assistant pitching coach at Jacksonville University. Morris graduated from Longwood University where she led the Lancers to a pair of Big South Championship titles and 2 NCAA Regional appearances in 2013 and 2015. Her stellar pitching career included 61 games won, and was highlighted by a 21- win season as a sophomore. She was a two time Big South Tournament MVP and left Longwood fourth on the program's all time wins' list and ranking in the top five in career strikeouts with 327. Morris graduated in 2015 with a bachelor's degree in sociology and worked as a family services specialist with the Bedford Department of Social Services. She is currently pursuing a Master of Science in leadership and learning online from Jacksonville University.
